Welcome to the Collective Stand

The Bologna Children's Book Fair is a showcase for Canadian publishers of children's and young adult books. You'll find 20 of them on the collective stand this year, and 13 more throughout the fair. Together they represent the outstanding quality and creativity of Canadian publishing.

The Rights Canada catalogue offers additional great Canadian fiction, non-fiction, and children's books. The 2021 edition features a collection of titles, for which rights are available. Ask for your copy at the collective stand.

Many more titles are listed on the Livres Canada Books website. You can also consult a list of international book fairs Canadian publishers attend, in order to arrange meetings in advance.

We encourage you to explore the variety and quality of Canadian publishing and to forge new partnerships with Canadian publishers.

Bienvenue au stand collectif

La Foire du livre jeunesse de Bologne est une vitrine pour les éditeurs canadiens de livres pour enfants et adolescents. Vous en trouverez 20 d'entre eux sur le stand collectif cette année, et 13 autres dispersés dans toute la foire. Ensemble, ils représentent la qualité exceptionnelle et la créativité de l'édition canadienne.

Le catalogue Droits du Canada propose encore plus de livres canadiens tout aussi exceptionnels, qu'il s'agisse d'œuvres de fiction, de documents ou de livres pour enfants. L'édition 2021 présente des titres, pour lesquels les droits sont disponibles. Demandez votre exemplaire sur le stand collectif.

De nombreux autres titres sont répertoriés sur le site Web de Livres Canada Books. Vous pouvez également consulter la liste des foires internationales du livre auxquelles participent des éditeurs canadiens afin d'organiser des réunions à l'avance.

Nous vous encourageons à découvrir la variété et la qualité de l'édition au Canada et à renforcer vos échanges avec vos collègues canadiens.

Association of Canadian Publishers (ACP) · www.publishers.ca

The Association of Canadian Publishers represents approximately 135 Canadian-owned and controlled book publishers from across the country. The membership is diverse and includes publishers from a variety of genres. Over 80% of Canadian-authored titles are published by the Canadian-owned sector. This means a strong Canadian-owned sector is vital to the development of new Canadian authors and writers.

Association nationale des éditeurs de livres (ANEL) · www.anel.qc.ca

The Association nationale des éditeurs de livres represents close to 125 French-language publishers in Québec and Canada. Its mission is to support the growth of the publishing industry and to promote Québec and French-Canadian books at the national and international levels. ANEL members publish a wide variety of books, ranging from novels to textbooks, essays and children's books. Member publishers are located in Québec, Ontario, Manitoba and New Brunswick.

Association of Canadian University Presses (ACUP) | Association des presses universitaires canadiennes (APUC) · www.acup.ca

The Association of Canadian University Presses serves the interest of Canadian scholarship by encouraging the dissemination of the fruits of research and scholarship.

Canadian Publishers' Council (CPC) · www.pubcouncil.ca

The Canadian Publishers' Council represents the domestic and international interests of English-language companies that publish books and other media for elementary and secondary schools, colleges and universities, professional, reference, retail and library markets.

Literary Press Group of Canada (LPG) · www.lpg.ca

The LPG is a not-for-profit association of Canadian literary book publishers. Its mandate is to foster the survival, growth and maintenance of Canadian owned and operated publishing houses through advocacy and group initiatives. Some of the main functions of the LPG are to act as an advocate for its members to the various government and funding bodies; provide members with access to a professional sales force that represents them to the Canadian (and in some cases, the US) trade book market; provide access to advertising opportunities through the LPG ad project; and create and implement group sales and marketing initiatives. LitDistCo, an affiliate of the LPG, provides members of the LPG, as well as other Canadian owned and operated publishing houses, with distribution services.

Regroupement des éditeurs franco-canadiens (REFC) · www.refc.ca

The Regroupement des éditeurs franco-canadiens was founded in 1989 to support Francophone publishers outside Québec and to facilitate cooperative business ventures. Currently, the REFC includes Francophone publishers in Moncton, Ottawa, Toronto, Sudbury, Winnipeg and Regina. The REFC represents its members at the national level and coordinates a number of business initiatives designed to strengthen their presence in the Canadian book industry.
